Dear Dr. Trimurti Lambat

This is to express my appreciation for your crucial role in our scientific collaboration since 2018. I would like to thank you for your diligent efforts and scientific contribution that led to the production of high-quality articles that were published in reputable international scientific journals. These articles provided significant addition to knowledge, and highlighted the importance and potential applications of new materials in various industries. I value your contributions highly, and hope, with your efforts, to carry the fruits of our collaboration to higher scientific standards in the future.
